

Brooklyn Toli is a Boston-based educator and performing artist. She currently serves as an Assistant Professor of Theater teaching tap dance at the Boston Conservatory at Berklee, choreographs for Bristol Community College's theater program, and is a founding member of Fourth Dimension Tap Company. Brooklyn is the 2023 Broadway World Boston's Best Choreography of a Musical award recipient for her work on Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat with New Bedford Festival Theatre. She is passionate about giving back to the community and started "Sisters Support Success" in 2020. The organization hosts free themed shopping days, works to support arts accessibility, and encourages teens to begin building service projects of their own. She will be awarding the organization's first community service scholarship in the amount of $1,000 this spring. Brooklyn holds a B.A. in Musical Theatre and Dance Performance from Rhode Island College, and is currently earning an M.F.A in Performing Arts Management at Brooklyn College.
