

Michaela has been dancing since the age of two. She danced and competed up until the age of 19. She is now the co owner of Let's Dance, Inc with her mother, Tracy Della Russo as well as the Competition Team director. Michaela danced professionally for 5 years traveling around the US. She has opened up for artists such as Big Sean, Ariana Grande, Kelly Clarkson, Jason Derulo to name a few. Also Michaela has danced at the 2013 and 2015 Kiss Concert at the Xfinity Center. She was also featured in a music video that debuted on MTV with artist B-Capp! She was also a promo dancer for Demi Lovato. She was an assistant to many dance conventions including Excel in Motion where she assisted for 2 years. Michaela's choreography has won numerous high scoring awards and choreography awards both regionally and nationally. She is also currently a teachers aid at Bright Horizon's Educational Pre School in Somerville, MA and taking an online college course to become a certified pre school teacher. She looks forward to working with every child and sharing her passion and love for the art of dance!