

Savannah Melo, born and raised in Massachusetts, grew up dancing her whole life. She began training at Lisa Pilato Dance Center, where she danced for 15 years and competed for 11 years. Savannah graduated in 2019 from Rhode Island College with a B.A. in Dance Performance as well as a minor in Psychology. Savannah has performed works by choreographers such as Alexandra Beller, Rennie Harris, Erica Randall, Teena Marie Custer, and David Parker to name a few. In May of 2022, Savannah graduated from Lesley University with her Master's degree in Mental Health Counseling: Dance/Movement Therapy. Most recently, Savannah and business partner, Alec Webber, opened Saval Dance Academy in Hudson, NH. Besides running a studio and sharing her knowledge of dance, Savannah is working full-time as a Mental Health Clinician through Tufts Medicine. Savannah is always so happy to return to LPDC!
